GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

A SLUMP IN WHEAT IS FOLLOWED BY ONE IN CORN AND PORK.

for TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD 1 ncade, Ill., Jan. 12, 1891.-Wheat slumped to-day after starting in well. May opened strong and higher, selling from 971/c. to 881/c., but the offerings became heavy and prices quickly broke to 951/c., a drop of 21/c. from early prices, and closed at about the lowest point of the day, with sellers at 98c., or fully 34c. lower thangon Saturday. The first influence of the government crop builtab because a good portion of the crowd got the impression that the report would show a increase. As it falled to do this, there was some sis sentiment at the opening. There was more out-buying than usual, but the market soon less its triper he strength pradually evaporated. Big receipts reported in the Northwest, which was another in-vet to waskness. The growing condition of she win-heat is reported very favorable.

waskings. Its growing condition of the winis reported very favorable.

er a somewhat higher opening, due to the govtop report, soon turned very weak on the break not the extreme weakness in pork. May opened it sold at 55%c, though not very freely. But ge were beavy and huyers quickly grew and a nood many drew out. May fell with tions to 52%c, and closed at 50%c bid, were leavy at the stock yards and for this operation market ruled weak and lower and, ing from inside prices, closed at a very fair, ame of the shorts covered and a good many lacouraged. They look at the shipmonts and if feel that though present rucelpits of hogs are liers will be a marked lest up in this particung. May pock opened at 11c, and after salling at 11.325gc. and 11.225gc., closing ted 5.55gc., and closed 75gc. lower.
